MINIATURE GOLF TOURNAMENT AND PRIZE RAFFLE TO BENEFIT A-T

Jacksonville Beach: Adventure Landing is hosting PUTT FOR LIFE Miniature Golf Tournament at their Jacksonville Beach location on Saturday, October 3rd, 2009. All net proceeds from the tournament will benefit A-T Children's Project. A-T Children's Project is a non-profit organization that raises funds for research and finding a cure for Ataxia-Telangiectasia (A-T), a rare and fatal child disease that causes progressive loss of muscle control, immune system problems and a high rate of cancer.

PUTT FOR LIFE is a doubles "best-ball" tournament, which means that the team member who shoots the lowest score for each hole will be recorded. The cost to participate is $20, which includes lunch, a t-shirt, participation in the tournament, and a chance to win great prizes. The tournament is being held at Adventure Landing, 1944 Beach Blvd., Jacksonville Beach, FL 32250 (904) 246-4386.

Each location will be awarding the winners:

- (1) Family trip to Ghost Town in the Sky in Western NC
- (1) Trip to Cataloochee Ski Area including ski lessons
- (1) Family 4-pack of Shipwreck Island Waterpark 2009 Season Passes

Pre-registration has begun online at Adventurelanding.com or onsite at each location. Teams can also register the day of the event at 11am. Lunch will be served prior to the tournament's noon starting time.

Sponsorships are also available a minimum investment, and the proceeds of the sponsorship money raised will also benefit A-T.

A prize raffle will follow. Raffle tickets will be $2 each or 3 for $5.

"Benefits like these that are for a good cause are important to us. It brings us (family entertainment center/themepark industry) back to our miniature golf roots while raising money and awareness for A-T," states Hank Woodburn, founder of Adventure Landing. There are ten Adventure Landing locations nationwide, with three in New York, three in North Carolina, three in Florida and one in Texas.
